

TAKE CONFERENCE 2019

Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy

3RD–5TH JULY 2019, VIENNA, AUSTRIA

Building Future Competences - Theory Meets Practice

TAKE is an international scientific conference devoted to the multidisciplinary study of the knowledge economy. In particular, it intends to analyze the relation and the gap between theories and practices in the knowledge economy of the 21st century.

In 2019, we will welcome participants in Vienna, Austria. The conference will be hosted by the Institute for Applied Research on Skilled Crafts and Trades (IAGF), based in the Austrian Economic Chambers (WKO), and co-organized by the WU Vienna University of Economics and Business, Research Group Knowledge-Based Management.

We invite fellow researchers to propose track sessions on their particular fields of interest. We welcome established and emerging topics that draw significant attention within knowledge management and related fields.
